A Diocesan Day of Recollection for Ministers of Holy Communion on Saturday 27th February from 10.30am to 3.30pm.

This Day of Recollection will be held at the Pastoral Resources Centre, St. Illtyd's High School, Rumney, Cardiff CF3 1XQ and is organised by the Archdiocesan Liturgy Commission for the benefit of Ministers of Communion, Communion Catechists and all involved in celebrating, sharing, receiving and growing the Body of Christ.
'Keynote' by Fr Tom O'Loughlin, Professor of Historical Theology at Nottingham University plus an opportunity to attend two workshops of your choice from the list below: -

- Ministering to the housebound in their own homes.
- Ministering in hospital or Nursing homes.
- Praying with, and Ministering to, Dementia Sufferers.
- Services of the Word with Communion.
- Celebrating the prayer of the Church.
- The Eucharist and Justice.
- Preparing Children for Communion (suitable for parents and catechists).
- 'Lectio Divina': the Minister's own prayer.

The day is designed as a Lenten retreat and recollection for lay people who serve in any capacity to bring Communion to their brothers and sisters and bring them also to Communion.
If you intend to attend please let Deacon Elfed (07950 013224) or Judith Braeman (2051 5309) know.
Registration forms available.
Please bring a packed lunch – refreshments will be available. See Poster.

Solemn Profession of Dom David Yates

With great joy we announce the Solemn Profession of our brother, Dom David Yates, which will take place during the Conventual Mass on Tuesday 2nd February 2016, Feast of the Presentation of Our Lord in the Temple and the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Mass will begin at 11.30am with the Blessing of Candles in the Cloister and the Procession to the Abbey Church.
All are invited to join us for this great celebration.
Dom David has an M.A. in Heritage and Museum Studies from the University of Portsmouth. He is presently studying Philosophy with London University. He entered the monastery in June 2011, was clothed as a Novice on 1st February 2012 and made his First Profession on 2nd February 2013. Please keep him in your prayers.
