Eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time (A) 2nd March 2014

1st Reading	Isaiah 49:14-15	There are times in our lives when we can feel lost, abandoned, unloved. Into this place of great sadness the Lord promises his people that he loves us with a deep unflinching maternal love.
Ps. 61	R/	In God alone is my soul at rest.
2nd Reading	1 Corinthians 4:1-5	Paul reminds the Corinthians not to use their time and energy fretting about who is worthy or not. Rather, trusting all things to our heavenly Father, we are called simply to be faithful stewards of the mysteries Christ gives us.
Acclamation		Alleluia, alleluia! Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth. Alleluia!
Gospel	Matthew 6:24-34	Recognising the worries of everyday life, Jesus calls all who hear him to reshape their lives in service to a new master. As servants of the Father we can live in freedom of heart, trusting all things to God.
