I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord.

SPUC SPONSORED 10km WALK 2017

The Cardiff and Penarth branch of the Society for the Protection of Unborn Children held their annual sponsored walk last Sunday (25th June) in Cardiff. Many of you sponsored Paul Stimpson and supported him as he walked to raise money for the SPUC campaign to change the law which denies the right to life of over 500 unborn babies every day. Paul will be collecting sponsorship money after Masses this weekend.

APOSTLESHIP OF THE SEA – FORTHCOMING COLLECTION NEXT WEEK

Sunday 9th July is Sea Sunday when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. There will be second collection for the Apostleship of the Sea (AoS), the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church. It supports seafarers who visit our ports both, practically and spiritually. Our daily life depends on the maritime industry and the sea. 90% of world trade is transported by sea. Around the world, nearly 1.2 million seafarers, many from developing nations, work on board 50,000 merchant ships carrying food, clothing, furniture, petrol and many other products. Seafarers have one of the hardest and most dangerous jobs in the world. They can spend months at sea, working long hours, living in cramped conditions and battling storms and gales. They see little of their families and, when they arrive in a port, they know no one.

This is where Apostleship of the Sea port chaplains and ship visitors come in. When they go on board a ship they have one question for the crew: How can I help? They offer the hand of friendship, listen to the concerns of the seafarers they meet and try, through small gestures, to attend to some of their needs. For more information please visit:

CAFOD DAY OF REFLECTION

CAFOD is delighted to be able to offer a day of reflection to all their supporters and volunteers on the vision of Pope Francis for a renewed Church that is more connected to the plight of the poor and lives out a vocation of helping those in greatest need. Together we will explore and learn more about the gems of wisdom found in our Catholic faith and to unpack some of the challenging teachings that Pope Francis presents us on topics ranging from caring for our common home, to refugees and care for our families. The day of reflection will also be a chance to explore how can we connect our lives to our deepest held values and recognising new ways on how we can put Pope Francis' vision into action in our own parishes and communities.....

This day is open to all supporters, including those who just want to find out more, and those who will benefit from a day of prayer and reflection on some important themes of our shared faith. Together we will take time to contemplate on the things that really matter to us and to seek a way to help reconnect our lives to the values of the Gospel. This promises to be both informative and transformative!

Please book your place early to avoid disappointment. This event will start at 10am for a gathering with tea and coffee, and will go through to a shared lunch around 1pm, and finishing before 4pm. This is a free event. Please bring food to share.

- Tuesday 18th July, 10am – 4pm – All Hallows RC Church, School Road, Miskin, Pontyclun, CF72 8PG.

CATHOLIC CERTIFICATE OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES

The Catholic Certificate of Religious Studies (CCRS) is important and relevant for all. The parish community, in collaboration with the home and school, has a privileged opportunity and responsibility to help all concerned to grow in their faith. This is a lifelong process. To achieve this we need to help those involved with parish catechesis to share this vision and have an adult understanding of their faith. The CCRS is designed for people who are engaged in the communication of their Catholic faith, whether directly or indirectly. It is open to catechists, people involved in liturgical work and other interested adults. The CCRS can provide general theological knowledge and offer a better understanding of the Catholic Faith. It will help participants to increase their practical application of the faith in their ministry in the Church. It provides the means to accurately and effectively communicate the principles of Catholic teaching. For more information including course start dates, fees and your nearest centre please visit the CCRS website: www.brs-ccrs.org.uk or call 0207 9011900.
