Evangelisation.

Good things have happened in recent weeks. The 'Light is On For You' which encouraged some Catholics back to confession, as the churches in Cardiff opened on Wednesday nights before Easter, including St Joseph's, Penarth. The Youth 2000 retreat attracted more than 100 young people to attend in St. David's Catholic College. The Divine Mercy Group responsible for the service in St. Alban's Splott last Sunday attracted some Catholics back to the practice of the faith who had been resting for many years.

A number of people still attend the Tuesday drop-in .lunchtime talks at the Cornerstone, opposite St. David's Cathedral, thereby enhancing their knowledge of the faith. All in all it has been a very encouraging and joyous time of evangelisation, which has borne much fruit.

Theology Public Lectures at Swansea University.

"Ageing and Spirituality" by the Rev Canon Dr James Woodward, Canon of St. George's Chapel, Windsor and former lead chaplain at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham. It takes place on Thursday 8th May at 7pm in the James Callaghan Lecture Theatre. Admission free.

CYTUN Monthly Prayer Worship

This takes place on the first Tuesday of every month (except August) when the different churches in Penarth join together for worship. St. Joseph's Penarth, currently hosts the event for this year. The next worship is at St Joseph's on May 7th led by members of All Saints Church. All are welcome.

Toiletries for Asylum Seekers – Next Weekend!

The second of this year's collection of toiletries for the Welsh Refugee Council has come around. You are asked to donate mostly toiletries for men, who are destitute and in most need. There is also a need for some baby nappies and ladies' toiletries. A large box will be placed at the back of both churches for your donations. Please note that the collection, will take place on this weekend only

Talk by Fr Nicholas King SJ at St. Woolos Cathedral, Stow Hill, Newport. He will be speaking about the challenges of biblical translation at 7pm on Monday 19th May in the above cathedral. Admission free. All welcome to attend.
