HOLY OILS – WHAT ARE THEY? The Chrism Mass which was celebrated last Tuesday in the Cathedral in Cardiff, is the celebration of the year that gathers together the entire Archdiocese, bishop, priests, deacons, religious, and laity. At this Mass, the Oil of the Sick and the Oil of Catechumens were blessed, and the Oil of Chrism was consecrated by the Archbishop. All three Oils form an important part of the sacramental life of our two parish communities during the year.

The Oil of the sick will be used throughout the coming year in the anointing of the sick, in our homes, care homes, and hospitals. The Oil of Catechumens will be used in the pre-baptismal anointing of both adults and children. The Oil of Chrism, which may only be consecrated by a bishop, is used at Baptism, Confirmation, and the Anointing of priests and bishops. As the bishop is not able to be present at all Baptisms through out the diocese, this special consecration and distribution links him with these celebrations. The Oil of Chrism is also used to anoint new altars and churches.

The oil used is pure olive oil, but balsam and other sweet-smelling oils are added to the Chrism because of its particular usage. After the Mass of Chrism, Mgr Joe brought the new oils back to the parish and they were formally carried to the altar in the offertory procession during the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Maundy Thursday evening in St. Joseph's.

EASTER OFFERINGS. The Easter Offering envelopes and the "loose plate" will constitute the traditional Easter Offerings to the priest, while the gift-aid envelopes and non gift-aid will go to the parish.

SAFEGUARDING IN THE ARCHDIOCESE

Safeguarding officers from across the archdiocese attended training sessions run by the archdiocesan safeguarding team. It was good to have a reminder that the diocese has an excellent team, based in the Pastoral Resource centre who are proactive in challenging any kind of abuse, promoting the care of everyone and supporting any victims/ survivors of abuse. We were privileged to be led by Jan Pickles noted for her work in many areas of education, sport and faith institutions. Archbishop Mark, in his previous diocese, was noted by the NSPCC as a "champion for safeguarding", and his presence at each of the training sessions spoke volumes about the importance he places on this work. If you, or anyone you know, would like a confidential chat about any aspects of safeguarding, please contact Nicky or Mary our parish reps whose contact details are on every newsletter or go directly to Chris Mullane Diocesan Safeguarding Co-ordinator 07498209554 sa@rcadc.org or Annie Griffith's Victim Support worker 02920365960 annie.griffiths@rcadc.org

THANK YOU FROM MISSIO RED BOXES. In 2022, our parish of St. Joseph's and St. Mary's raised £2,424 through our red boxes, including individuals giving directly to Missio and the Mill Hill Missionaries. Thank you! Our "missionaries" here in our parish, are part of a worldwide network of people supporting Missio through prayer and financial assistance. Your support enabled Mill Hill Missionaries to help children learn in a safe environment and instil values that empowered them to turn away from conflict and towards faith in God. Visit mission.org.uk to find out more about how your support changes lives for the better.
