The Fourteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time (Year A)

July 9th 2017

1st Reading: Zechariah 9:9-10.

The prophet shares a vision of the forthcoming joyful reign of a servant king and calls all to be jubilant in anticipation.

Ps 144:1-2. 8-11. 13-14. Rv. 1

*I will bless your name for ever,
O God my King.*

2nd Reading: Romans 8:9. 11-13

We are called to live a life according to the Spirit of the living God, who resides in each one of us and makes us God's sons and daughters.

Acclamation: Mt 11:25

*Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth,
for revealing the mysteries of the kingdom to mere children.
Alleluia!*

Gospel: Matthew 11:25-30

Jesus knows the heart of the Father and reflects that tenderness to all, who, drawn low by the pressure of life, trust in him.

APOSTLESHIP OF THE SEA – TODAY

Today is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea and the second collection is for the Apostleship of the Sea (AoS), the Church's official maritime welfare agency. It supports seafarers both, practically and spiritually. You may also be surprised to know that many seafarers are Catholics, coming from the Philippines, India and Poland, so a key part of Apostleship of the Sea's work is to provide spiritual support helping them to get to Mass or praying with them in times of difficulty. Another important part of the Apostleship's work is giving simple, practical help to all seafarers. Sometimes a port chaplain's work is fairly straightforward, like making sure seafarers have the correct SIM cards for their mobile phones, so they can make contact with their families back home and, sometimes, the work is more dramatic, for example when the Tilbury port chaplain recently had to comfort the crew of a ship who were deeply upset after a death on board. Our daily life depends on the maritime industry and the sea; 90% of world trade is transported by sea. Around the world, nearly 1.2 million seafarers, many from developing nations, work on-board 50,000 merchant ships carrying food, clothing, furniture, petrol and many other products. Working conditions are very difficult, as seafarers often work long shifts in extreme weather conditions. The second collection is vital to enable AoS to continue its work, so please give generously and remember seafarers in your prayers. Thank you. ST. JOHN KEMBLE - PILGRIMAGE

Born in Herefordshire in 1599 and ordained at Douai College in 1625, he came back to be a missionary in Monmouthshire and Hereford. He served more than 50 years as an itinerant priest. He was arrested in 1678. At the age of 80, he was sent to London. He was sentenced and walked a great deal of the road back to Hereford where he was hung, then drawn and quartered, on 22nd August 1679. His body lies in the churchyard at Welsh Newton, the culmination of the yearly pilgrimage.

This year, the pilgrimage to the grave of St. John Kemble will take place on Sunday the 20th August:

- 10.15am Monmouth to Welsh Newton. Pilgrims set off from St. Mary's Church, Monmouth, after 9.15am Mass. Bring packed lunch.
- 3pm Welsh Newton. Rosary, Readings and Prayers.
- 4.15pm Monmouth. Benediction in St. Mary's Church. Tea in the garden and produce sold.

The Annual Pilgrimage is a blessing for all who come. For further information, please contact Mrs M Walsh: 01600 713316. SEE POSTER.

CATHOLIC CERTIFICATE OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES

The Catholic Certificate of Religious Studies (CCRS) is important and relevant for all. The parish community, in collaboration with the home and school, has a privileged opportunity and responsibility to help all concerned to grow in their faith. This is a lifelong process. To achieve this we need to help those involved with parish catechesis to share this vision and have an adult understanding of their faith.

The CCRS is designed for people who are engaged in the communication of their Catholic faith, whether directly or indirectly. It is open to catechists, people involved in liturgical work and other interested adults.

The CCRS can provide general theological knowledge and offer a better understanding of the Catholic Faith. It will help participants to increase their practical application of the faith in their ministry in the Church. It provides the means to accurately and effectively communicate the principles of Catholic teaching.

For more information including course start dates, fees and your nearest centre please visit the CCRS website:

www.brs-ccrs.org.uk or call 0207 9011900.
