Introduction to today's Mass:

COME TO ME ALL YOU WHO LABOUR AND ARE OVERBURDENED....

Very often we are too embarrassed to admit we cannot cope or that things have got on top of us. Embarrassing events in life may have their amusing side, but often they have something to teach us; they show us that embarrassment hurts our pride. We don't want others to see us at our worst. But our God, who knows us so well, loves us despite everything. In fact, our God seems to love us even more when we are down on our luck, when things go badly, when we are struggling with difficulties of one kind or another. And that is the encouraging message that our Mass has for us today. j

PETERS PENCE – THANK YOU.

The second collection last weekend for Pope Francis' own charity, affectionately known as "Peter's Pence," raised the very generous sum of £703.45. and this at a time when family budgets are so stretched. Thank you to all who contributed to this annual appeal.

NO MORNING MASS AGAIN THIS THURSDAY.

There will be no Mass this Thursday morning in St Joseph's as Mgr Joe has a diocesan meeting to attend in Archbishop's House that morning.

THE UNIVERSE NEWSPAPER IS BACK

You will find copies at the back of St Josephs. If you would like one, just take one. Payment £3.50 on collection plate.

DAMIAN PETER MICHAEL BARRY RIP

It was with great sadness that we heard of the unexpected death of Damian who died on Sunday 18th June. Our thoughts and prayers are with Damian's family at this time. We also extend our condolences to Tony, Damian's father, and to the rest of the family. A Funeral Mass will take place in St Joseph's Penarth on Wednesday 19th July at 11.30am and afterwards at the Vale Crematorium. "May he rest peace"

SEA SUNDAY TODAY – SECOND COLLECTION.

Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all of our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. In the last year, more crews have been abandoned by their employers than ever before. Many are still denied the right to leave their ship for even a short break away from the relentless noise and pressure on board. Many are reporting more stress and poor mental health. Sea Sunday is this Sunday 9th July and it is when the church prays for those who live and work at sea. Your support will make a big difference to fishers and seafarers in need. You can donate either in the second collection taken in church, or by visiting www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate or even by texting 'SEA' to 70460 to donate £5. This collection is vital to help Stella Maris (formerly called Apostleship of the Sea) in its work. This organisation provides pastoral and spiritual support to seafarers and fishers. Your prayers and support are greatly needed.

COFFEE MORNING – SAT 1ST JULY. THANK YOU.

The scones and cream coffee morning raised the magnificent sum of £591 towards a target of £2,000, which will enable RTU (Reach the Unreached) to build a borewell for a Primary School in Southern India. Climate change has caused severe long term droughts in the area and has led to the drying up of many rural wells. A new well for a school will guarantee that the children – who are our brothers and sisters – will flourish through access to clean water. A big thank you to all who came and enjoyed each other's company on a lovely summer's morning, and to the many people who gave generous donations at a difficult time.
