

ST. JOSEPH'S & ST. MARY'S

PARISH GAZETTE

The Archdiocese of Cardiff, Registered Charity no. 1177272

6th Sunday of Ordinary Time (B)

14th February 2021.

1st Reading: Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46.

The book of Leviticus shows us the practical implications of the Law of Moses. At a time when people had no defence against virulent diseases, rules are laid down which exclude those with skin diseases from wider society, for the protection of the whole people.

Ps 31: 1-2, 5. 11. R/v 7.

*You are my refuge, O Lord;
you fill me with the joy of salvation.*

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians: 10:31-11:1

Paul is talking to early Christians about how to behave when dining with pagans. Paul balances the freedom of the Spirit, which no longer requires strict adherence to the Law of Moses, and the need to avoid shocking the conscience of others.

Acclamation: Eph 1: 17.18.

*Alleluia, alleluia !
May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ
enlighten the eyes of our mind,
so that we can see what hope his call holds for us.
Alleluia !*

Gospel: Mark 1: 40-45

Jesus heals a man with a virulent skin disease and puts himself at risk of being rendered ritually unclean in the process. There is nothing any of us could ever do that Jesus would not be willing to heal, at whatever cost to himself.

ASH WEDNESDAY. PRAYER DURING MASS.

During Mass on Wednesday in St. Joseph's at 9.30am, after the blessing of ashes, those taking part from home on stream, will be asked to bless each other (or themselves) by making a sign of the cross on each other's forehead at the appropriate time, after which the following prayer will be said together. Please have the text below handy:

Lord God, with all our hearts we beseech you; have mercy on your people; spare your people; strengthen all people in the struggle against the havoc of this pandemic. Lord our God, without you we are so weak and our courage so limited.

Give us your strength; give us your love; give us wisdom and skill to continue this fight. Spare your people, O Lord we pray. Comfort those who mourn and gather into your kingdom all who have died.

We make this prayer through Christ our Lord, who died and rose to life, who lives and reigns with you, for ever and ever. Amen
