Justice & Peace (J&P) – National Annual Conference

This will take place at the Hayes Conference Centre, Swanick, Derbyshire from 17th to 19th July. The theme of the Conference is “The Things That Make For Peace” and will be examining the real threats to human security and how we can work together to create a world without war. Some of our J&P Group will be going and we would really like some parishioners to come along and taste this inspiring weekend for the first time. There are bursaries available especially for families, as well as special programmes available for children and young people. Ask any member of the J&P Group for further details if you are interested.
