November Dead Lists:

During November, Masses are said for specific intentions (where applicable) and also for the Holy Souls - in particular those named in the November Dead Lists, which are placed on the altar. Special envelopes are available at the back of both churches, in which you may insert the list of names for commemoration of your departed family and friends. Any donations received will go to an Emergency Medical Appeal for Syrian Babies and Children, run by the Dominican and Comboni Sisters at two hospitals in Jordan.

The International Refugee Trust (IRT) tells us:

"Impoverished and sick Syrian refugees are crying out for healthcare. The Dominican Sisters and the Comboni Sisters run two well-respected hospitals in Jordan, one in the capital Amman, and the other in the town of Karak, farther south. Every day Syrians arrive at the hospital desperate for help. Many have illnesses which are exacerbated by the terrible living conditions which they have to endure. Many are incredibly poor and cannot afford to pay for medical care. The Sisters do all they can for them, but they need to be able to do more. Sometimes just a few antibiotics will solve the problem, but some quite complicated operations are also needed. Any help is greatly appreciated".

How great is God's love for us?

The Catholic Bible School's final event in Wales for 2015 will take place on Saturday 28th November in St. Dyfrig's Church, Treforest. It will be led by Gemma Wildsmith, who will be looking at the theme 'Christ our Bridegroom' and leading us on a biblical and liturgical journey exploring how God's great love for us is often symbolised as a bridegroom to a bride.

Gemma is an experienced preacher, teacher and missionary. Her love of the Lord is evident and her passion for sharing that with others is second to none. She will draw us into a deeper, reflecting journey of faith and love of Jesus.

We will meet at 10am to 3pm in St. Dyfrig's Church hall, Broadway, Treforest, Pontypridd CF37 1DB. Please bring a packed lunch. Suggested donation £10.

Theology Public Lecture Series – Swansea Uni.

Talk by Professor Martin Stringer (Pro Vice-Chancellor) on "Discourses of Religious Diversity: Exploring the value of 'difference' and 'diversity' in debates about religion in the UK" in the James Callaghan Lecture Theatre at 7pm on Tuesday 24th November.

Everybody welcome – admission free.
