THANK YOU FROM MGR JOE

The Holy week services and Easter Masses don't just happen. A great deal of extra work is involved from a number of parishioners (they know who they are). It was edifying to see that the attendance at the Holy week/Easter services was up on last year. Let us hope that it continues. Perhaps there are signs that we are at last emerging from the Covid years. Thank you to all those who helped in any way to make the celebration of the Lords Passion and Resurrection such a moving experience.

CELEBRATION FOR THE MAN WHO COULD BE ENGLAND'S NEW SAINT

John Bradburne held Buckfast Abbey as a special place in his heart, as this was where he converted to Catholicism. The cause for Beatification for Bradburne is now in full swing and he is likely to become England's next Saint. This is a rare opportunity to learn about Bradburne's saintly life and meet the people making this happen. The John Bradburne Memorial Society will be hosting an event at Buckfast Abbey, South Devon on Saturday 10th June 2023 at 12 noon to commemorate his 102nd Birthday. This ticketed event will involve a Mass, lunch, talks, music and an exhibition. If you would like to attend, please contact: JBMS 07979 187498 or info@johnbradburne.com

The John Bradburne Memorial Society helps to support the MUTEMWA Care Centre in Zimbabwe. It was set up in honour of its late warden, John Bradburne, who spent the last 10 years of his life, from 1969 – 1979, caring for the Leprosy patients, Aids, and those with mental illnesses.

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY – VOCATIONS.

The 4th Sunday of Easter has become known as Good Shepherd Sunday, because in the gospel reading today, Jesus uses one of those important "I AM" statements, "I am the Good Shepherd" (he said). And so on Good Shepherd Sunday, we will be urged to say special prayers for vocations, especially vocations to the priesthood and religious life, that those called may discern the will of God for them and have the courage to respond to it. We know that for some years now, there has been a crisis in the dwindling number of vocations to the priesthood in Western Europe and North America. Thankfully, however, over the last few years we have seen green shoots establish themselves, which have grown and produced a "harvest" of Ordinations to the Priesthood here in the Archdiocese. This includes 2 former Anglican priests who are now working alongside our clergy to good effect. We also still have one student Priest in the Seminary who is due to be ordained a 'Transitional' deacon later this year. However, we cannot be complacent. The active clergy are not getting any younger and some are soldiering on despite health issues of one kind or another, while others are approaching retirement age. So we must continue to pray for our priests and for vocations to the priesthood. In doing so, we need to recognize that the source of our vocations is the FAMILY. Vocations are out there – in our Catholic homes, our parishes, our schools and universities; and it is they who must accept their collective responsibility and recognise that it is they, in partnership with the Holy Spirit, who can ultimately provide the church of the future with the priests and religious it needs. (Mgr. Joe)
