The First Sunday of Lent Time (Year B) February 18th 2018

1st Reading: Genesis 9:8-15

God gives us the rainbow as a sign of God's everlasting covenant with humankind.

Ps 24:4-9. Rv. 10

Your ways, Lord, are faithfulness and love for those who keep your covenant.

2nd Reading: 1 Peter 3:18-22

God's will is to save us all. Baptism is God's pledge to us of this desire.

Acclamation: Mt 4:4

*Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!
Man does not live on bread alone,
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!*

Gospel: Mark 1:12-15

After being tempted in the wilderness by Satan, Jesus begins his proclamation of the Good News from God.

CAFOD FAMILY FAST DAY – THIS FRIDAY

CAFOD's Family Fast Day this Lent is an opportunity to support our brothers and sisters who don't have enough to eat. On Friday 23rd February can you give up a meal, or eat a simple meal, in solidarity? With malnutrition still killing almost three million children a year, your fasting, prayers and donations will ensure more of God's children have enough good food to eat. And this Lent, your donation will make double the difference. For every pound you donate to CAFOD, the UK Government will also donate a pound, up to a total of £5 million, meaning twice the number of lives can be transformed. Twice the number of children can have the opportunity to grow up healthy and strong. CAFOD envelopes are being distributed TODAY and they will be collected NEXT WEEK i.e. 24th / 25th Feb. Please give generously.

CAFOD STATEMENT ON SAFEGUARDING VULNERABLE COMMUNITIES

CAFOD has robust safeguarding policies and a zero-tolerance approach to misconduct. Recent news reports have raised disturbing questions about reported abuses by aid workers, causing significant worry and distrust in the UK public. CAFOD has a zero-tolerance approach to misconduct breaching our Code of Behaviour, including fraud, abuse, intimidation and other acts. We have robust safeguarding and whistle-blowing policies and practices in place to ensure that vulnerable people are protected. Nonetheless, we are committed to regularly reviewing our procedures, and therefore are joining an initiative with other UK-based overseas development agencies and the Charity Commission to strengthen cross-sector information sharing and protection of vulnerable people.

The Times newspaper on 10th February 2018 wrote that a current CAFOD employee was named as an Oxfam staff member who had been working in Haiti in 2011, amidst accusations of sexual misconduct. We are not aware of allegations made against this employee and received two references, as standard practice, at the time of recruitment. Following concerns raised in this article, the staff member has been put on leave while we examine the issues raised and follow our Code of Behaviour protocol to determine next steps.

It is disheartening that the actions of a few unscrupulous aid workers may undermine trust in the life-saving work done by overseas development and humanitarian agencies, including CAFOD, working alongside some of the poorest communities and helping them live life to the fullest. Our commitment to them is steadfast, and we will continue to vigilantly prevent abuse by aid workers from happening, and ensure swift action when concerns are raised.

Chris Bain, CAFOD Director
