November Dead Lists

During November, Masses are said for specific intentions (where applicable) and also for the Holy Souls – in particular for those named in the November Dead Lists which are placed on the altar. Special envelopes are available at the back of both churches.

November – The Month of Remembrance

As we approach the month of November, with its Feasts of All Saints and All Souls, we are reminded in a poignant way of loved ones we have lost. Our thoughts turn towards questions of Death and Eternal Life. The Diocesan Evangelisation Group, in collaboration with the Family Life Commission of the Archdiocese, offers you a choice of reflective moments, thought-provoking talks and family events.

On the following Tuesdays: Oct 28th, Nov 4th, Nov 11th and Nov 25th, there will be a series of half-hour talks at the Cornerstone in Charles \Street, (opposite St. David's Cathedral), at 12.30pm, on subjects related to Life and Death. Refreshments will be served after the talks.

On Friday 31st October, at the Cornerstone, from 6.30-8.30pm, families of all ages are invited to an evening of games and activities to celebrate the true meaning of Hallowe'en: a Christian celebration of the saints, illuminated by Jesus 'the light of the world'. The Night of Light is planned to be an alternative family celebration to Hallowe'en. There will be lots of fun – games, puzzles and craft activities. A light supper will be served.

Every Wednesday during the month of November, the Cornerstone will be "open to the public" from 11am to 2.30pm as a place of reflection for anyone who feels conscious of bereavement. Drop in at any time during these hours to find a warm welcome. Trained bereavement support volunteers will be available to listen and to talk with anyone who wishes to do so; there will also be reflective spots set up for people who just want to sit and reflect and pray. Refreshments will be available.

There will be a special prayer service (not a Mass) for anyone whose life has been touched by the loss of a child in the womb, through birth or miscarriage, on Friday 14th November at Christ the King Church in Llanishen. The service will be offered twice, first at 1.30pm and again at 7.30pm.

Advent Homilies

Fr Tim McGrath will give four 'Friday Homilies' in preparation for the Sundays of Advent. These will take place at St. David's Cathedral, Cardiff during the 12.45pm Mass. The first of these talks will take place on Friday 28th November.
