Communion at the Hospital

If you are to enter hospital for treatment, or you know of anyone about to have a hospital stay, please let the Church know!! In that way the patient will be visited by an Eucharistic visitor from whom he/she may receive Holy Communion. We have a very dedicated team of Eucharistic Ministers, for whom we are truly thankful.

Information for Students of Cardiff Universities

Next week the Catholic Chaplaincy is launching a £1 meal to help tackle student deprivation. This is a pilot programme which will then move permanently to the Student Union building from September. Money can be very tight this time of year for students and, being young and wanting to be independent of parents and adults, many will not indicate that they are really struggling financially and especially not eating properly. The Catholic Chaplaincy along with other chaplaincies have committed themselves to highlighting the plight of students and giving practical expression to our concerns.

Sisters of St. Joseph of Annecy: 150th Anniversary

The Sisters are celebrating the 150th anniversary of their arrival in Britain. One of the events planned to mark this occasion is an Open Day at Llantarnam Abbey on Saturday 21st June from 10.30am to 4pm. The Sisters have been ministering among us in Penarth and Dinas Powys since 1976. We are all warmly invited.

Life in the Holy Spirit

Do you need renewal in your Christian life and faith? Do you want a "refresher", or perhaps you are looking for a "starter"? Do you know much about the Holy Spirit? For the next 5 weeks a series of weekly gatherings will take place at St. Brigid's Hall, Crystal Glen, Cardiff CF14 5QN at 7.30pm. We will revisit the foundations of our faith and life, and seek to grow in the power of the Holy Spirit in this season of Easter and Pentecost.

Speakers will include Canon Matthew Jones, Fr. Gareth Leyshon, Deacon Rob Coyne and others.
