Pharaoh's Pantry (Food Bank) needs help.

The Food Bank informs us that supplies are now scarce at their collection point at Tabernacle Church, Plassey Street. Please help by donating the following major needs: - nappies, tinned soup, tinned fruit and veg, tinned meat products, pasta sauce, sugar, toilet rolls, soap, and toothbrushes. In a recent report to Penarth Cytûn, members of St Joseph were singled out for their commitment to the practical running of the Food Bank. Thank you for your very valuable support.

Piety Shop – don't forget to pick up your Catholic papers and periodicals. Many of our Catholic papers remain unsold each weekend. Please take the trouble to call in the piety shop in St. Joseph's after Mass and buy one, or ask Canon Joe to bring a Universe, Cath Times or Cath Herald up to St. Mary's for you. It is important that we support the Catholic Press. Thank you.
